with 65% of the regular working hours (currently 25,87 hours per week) with a limited contract of 3 years. This position should be filled by October, 1st 2018. Salary: Pay grade 13 TV-L.

In the area of experimental consciousness research, our group investigates basic processes of visual processing that lead to a conscious experience and the mechanisms of processing unconscious visual stimuli. We use psychophysical (RT, eye movements), physiological (EEG, fMRI) and phenomenological approaches.

Your Duties

The successful candidate will collaborate on the DFG-funded research project "Specification of Multiple Visual Processes in Metacontrast Masking Using Individual Differences". You will be closely involved in all aspects of experimental planning, data collection, analysis and publication of the results. A high degree of independence and the contribution of ideas is expected.

Your profile

- You hold a highly qualified M.S. in Psychology.
- Knowledge of and interest in the human visual system, visual cognition, neuroanatomy and statistics.
- Experience in dealing with statistical software (ideally R).
- Experience in programming (Matlab, Presentation).
- Experiences with psychophysiological methods.
- Proficiency in English.
- Proficiency in German.
- Excellent skills in analytical thinking, perceptiveness, commitment, self-organization, teamwork, and communication.

This post is designed to serve in fostering young researchers and scientists and give the successful applicant the opportunity to achieve a doctoral degree.
